FIRST TRAIN OVER WESTERN PACIFIC

Trip From San Francisco to Salt Lake Made Over New Line.

ARRIVAL WITHOUT CEREMONY

Yee President Schlacks and Gen. Mgr. Levy Much Pleased With Road.

the virgin train over the Western Pacific arrived from San Francisco shortly after 3 o'clock Wednesday, marking a notable epoch in the history of western railroading. On the train were Charles H. Schlacks, first vice were Charles H. Schlacks, first vicewe head of the road under President Jeffery: C. M. Levy, second vice president and general manager, who ome to the Western Pacific from the Northern Pacific as head of the operating department: V. G. Bogue, chiefegineer, under whom the line has been built; T. J. Wyche, engineer in charge d the eastern division; J. F. Evans suffer of the new road, and several

The train pulled in without The train pulled in without any special ceremony, the only celebration being the blowing of a few whistles by ergines in the depot yards. The special's locomotive was not even decreted. The train consisted of a private car, diner, and baggage car. The party were welcofned by Messrs. Dernal, Benton and other local D. & R. G. officials, who escorted them up town. The viritors expect to return to San Francisco Thursday.

NO APPOINTMENTS YET.

Mr. Schlacks was asked about the much talked of traffic staff. He replied no such appointments would be made until his return to San Francisco, and perhaps not for 10 days yet. He said all reports hitherto published were but drams. Mr. Schlacks stated that the Western Pacific would be open for reight traffic about Dec. 1, although 80 miles of track remained to be ballasted. He described the Feather river scenery as not excelled in America, so that the road is a continuation of the Rio Grande as far as scenery is concerned. The views were a revelation to him. This with low grades and fine equipment ought to make the line a popular one.

POSSIBILITIES GREAT.

Mr. Levy expressed himself as greatly pleased with the road's possibilities. The roadbed is now frozen, so it will be necessary to wait u.dl return of warm wather to pack it thoroughly by running trains over it at slow speed before putting on a fast passenger service. Mr. Levy said that by Dec. 1 the company would be receiving freight, but the passenger service can hardly be installed before spring.

EXTEND REPAIR PLANT. The Western Pacific has 926 miles o The Western Pacific has $26 miles of tack, 183 miles longer than the Centil Pacific, equalized however, by low gades and slight curves. The report has gone around that the Gould interest are preparing to largely extend whis point the construction and reply plant of the two roads, removing bet the Ogden shops. Arrangements have been made with the Pacific ocean seamth companies to route passessible companies to route passes.

simply, 'assistant superintendent' (tel-egrams 'A, S,'), no name being used unless the communication is intended unless the communication is intended to be personal rather than official, in which case it will be held unopened for the person addressed. It is intended that an assistant superintendent shall always be on duty in charge of the division headquarters offices during office hours. The designation of a particular assistant superintendent to handle specified classes of correspondence and telegrams is a matter concerning only this office. Each official transacts busithis office. Each official transacts business in his own name, and no person should sign the name or initials of another. The principle to guide subordinate officials and employee is to be governed by the latest instructions issued and received. Train orders will be given over the initials of the train dispatchers on duty. The medifications of pre-existing organization and methods hereby ordered have been carefully herein ordered have been carefully worked out to expedite the company's business by the reduction and simplibusiness by the reduction and simplification of correspondence and records. It is expected and believed that officials and employes will insure a successful outcome by lending their usual intelligent co-operation and hearty support. "Officials and other persons outside the jurisdiction of this division are requested to address official communications, intended for the superintendent or any assistant superintendent. Superintendent assistant superintendent, 'Superintendent, Montana Division, Pocatello, Idado' (telegrams 'Supt.'), without using the name of the superintendent except for personal matter."

A similar circular, issued from Idaho division headquarters, also at Poca-tello, reclassifies the following division officials in the same way: Charles E. Brooks, A. H. Gairns, W. S. Harer, J. P. Folger, E. M. Jacobs, G. J. Cunningham, C. J. Husted, J. H. Woffington, J. D. Rayle, J. E. Davis, L. E. Halbert, G. H. Collier—all assistant superintendents.

The following roster for the Salt Lake division, is per circular issued today, from headquarters in this city: Thomas Fitzgerald, T. F. Rowland, D. J. Malone, D. Hickey, W. J. Toy, B. A. Campbell, F. W. Easton, W. J. Bell, A. W. Stimson, P. A. McKinstry—all assistant superintendents.

By this re-arrangement of administration, heads of the various division departments have their authority ex-tended over the other division depart-ments, so that there will always be an assistant superintendent within call somewhere. Then, these assistants are to meet to discuss exigencies person-

lly. This is what is called the unit system, introduced by Major Hines of the Omaha offices. The major was an army officer, where certain lines of military administration impressed him as likely to be effective in other fields of opera-

INNOVATION AT PORTLAND

Passengers to Get Something for Nothing on the Interurban.

(Special Correspondence.) Portland, Or., Nov. 8.—An innovation in electric railway transportation that its gone around that the Gould interstance preparing to largely extend at this point the construction and reperplant of the two roads, removing berthe Ogden shops. Arrangements have been made with the Pacific ocean standard condenses who have gone allowed or the Western Pacific and Rb Grande roads who have gone allowed over the other lines.

The Western Pacific was organized in 182 and incorporated Feb. 7, 1903. H. M. McCariney the well known engineer of the Salt Lake Route, early identified simself with the new venture, as did J. F. Evans, assistant and the report to the report to electric railway transportation that is said to be unique in America is about to be tried on an interurbean road running out of Portland to Salem, the state capital, and other Willamette valley points. This is the serving of a free lunch on the interurban trains at meal time. The inauguration of a regular dining car service would be cumbersome and mean handling an additional heavy car, but by putting on a buffet-observation car, lunch can be served with little inconvenience.

Porters on the cars will serve the lunch without charge and it is belunch without charge and it is believed the new service will prove very popular. Regular charges will be made for observation car seats but this toll will include the luncheon, so the passenger will have the unique experience of getting something for nothing from a railroad company.

The trolley road has recently been completed by New York and Philadelphia capital and is already one of the best equipped interurban lines in the west. Cars uniform with the best west. Cars uniform with the best Pullman equipment will be used, with smoking compartments, buffet and obervation platforms, affording all the comforts of modern travel even for the comparatively short distances covered.

PORTLAND CHILDREN INTERESTED IN CHICKENS

Portland, Or., Nov. 11.—Portland schoolchildren are being interested in poultry raising and are offered prizes for the best chickens. An association of the young poultry fanciers has been formed under the direction of the local Y. M. C. A. and the state agricultural college and a great deal of interest is being shown in the work by the young-

Objects of the movement among schoolchildren are to provide healthful outdoor occupation for them after school hours, and in this way to stimulate egg and poultry production, there being a sad lack of these products in the northwest. Many eggs and fowls consumed here are now shipped from the Middle West. Chicken raising is profitable here but it is being neglected. By arousing interest among the schoolchildren it is thought the present lack will be overcome in future.

THIS FROG A PUZZLE.

Portland, Or., Nov. 11.—After lying at a depth of 12 feet in the ground for an unknown length of time, a live frog was uncovered this week near Laidlaw, Or., by A. D. Parks, who was digging a cis by A. D. Parks, who was digging a cis-tern. The frog was in a torpid condi-tion when turned up by Mr. Parks' spade, but soon warmed up and became as lively as a cricket. How it main-tained the vital spark, apparently for ages, buried in the ground, aroused no end of speculation in the neighborhood.

BISHOP W .T. SABINE BECOMES FIRE HERO

New York, Nov. 11.—In a fire which threatened the destruction of his home in Madison avenue early today, Bishop W. T. Sabine, of the Reformed Episcopal church, became a hero by rescuing one of his maid servants from an upper floor. All of the other occupants of the house had been accounted for except Mary Norton, when Bishop Sabine rushed back into the smoke-filled residence, up three flights of stairs and broke into the maid's room. She was unconscious from smoke. The bishop carried her to the street, having to feel his way through the smoke. Firemen extinguished the biaze, which was confined to the basement, after it had done slight damage.

Large Proportion of Those Who Lead In Every Walk of Life Are From the Country

(Special Correspondence.) Chicago, Nov. 9 .- The value of the baby on the farm as compered with that of the barnyard animal, which was caustically pointed out at the meeting of the Illinois Medical association by Dr. Charles W. Carter of Clinton, Ill. promises to have big results for the farmer's haby. He argued that poten tially the sucking child of the country is far more than the calf or the colt, 'economically as well as sentimentally a creature of tremendous value." Ofher nembers of the association are disposed a creature of tremendous value." Other members of the association are disposed to add emphasis to a needed change of relative regard for the baby, the cell and the calf.

"I believe it will prove a blessing to the child and to society." Dr. Carter declared, "if we will but appreciate the fact that upon the welfare of the country infant rests the life and the strength and 'the hope of the nation." His championship of the baby was launched unexpectedly in an address on infant feeding in country practise.

"Fighting the infant's life battle," Dr. Carter declared, "will assume a different aspect when we bring ourselves to a realization of the fact that the country is the recruiting ground of our national vitality, that it is the fountain head whence flows a continuous stream of young men and women to leaven the masses, to infuse our national life with new energy to counteract in our cities the degenerating influences of urban environment, and to offset the tendency to national demoralization, and devirilization, resulting from our policy of absorbing into bur population the overflow from the old world's overcrowded and under nourished peoples.

"There is an element of unrest among those of country birth that impels a considerable proportion to forsake the rural life of their fathers, and enter upon other vocations. We find, therefore, in every trade, business or profes-men and women who are country born; and it is a matter of common knowledge that a large proportion of those who lead in every walk of life, and whose achievements give distinction to our national character were born outside of the city.

NOT A MISFORTUNE.

"The cityward trend of the country youth, so deplored by our writers, is not wholly a social misfortune. It appears to be a perfectly natural movement, which we probably could not check if we would, and which almost certainly we should not forestall if we could. If some, on the one hand, have not the stamina to withstand the enervating effects of the city's congestion and the city's tension, the hope of the nation is, nevertheless, in the others who bring to it brain as well as brawn, and visor and vitality—this constant inand vigor and vitality—this constant in-fusion of new blood, and constant ac-cession of new force from rural sources that we must rely upon, in the words of a former president, to prevent say pos-stock."

"It is for these reasons, it seems to me, that we may in the catalog of our country's natural resources place a high value upon the children bora upon our farms and in our villages—the children of the country as distinguished from the strictly city born—and should regard the feeding of the country infant as a work of far greater mement than the mere saving of an infant life."

Siegel Prices

We've often mentioned Siegel prices - fact is, we're proud of 'em they're lower than prices at other stores on similar qualities. Why?

Well, we control such a tremendous trade that our tailors are glad to make price concessions, which would otherwise not be considered -then, too, our, buyers are so expert that no slip can occur every suit, every overcoat is bought strictly on merit, and at as low a price as is possible.

And, finally, we mark each garment at just as small a margain as sane merchandising will allow, only figuring on a legitimate profit, depending on volume of sales to net us our profit, instead of larger profits and fewer sales.
